

Jason A. Becker
PO Box 1534
Sioux City, Iowa 51102
(712) 943-1041
jbecker@1stclassecurity.com

Experience

Director of Operations, 1st Class Security, Inc, Sioux City, Iowa, 2009-Present

Reviews all master schedules; interviews/hires/trains/disciplines/terminates employees; works contract hours as necessary; maintains rapport with clients; maintains and distributes uniform requests and requirements; license security guards where required

United States Army Reserves, 960th Quartermasters Co., Sioux City, Iowa, 2009-Present

As a Petroleum Supply Specialist, I receive and store bulk and package petroleum, oil and lubricant products. Issue and dispense bulk fuels and water from storage and distribution facilities to using units. Select and submit samples of POL to laboratory for testing. Perform petroleum and water accounting duties. Operate equipment associated with petroleum and water distribution system and multi-product pipeline system. Fuel and defuel vehicles, aircraft, and stationary equipment. Take emergency precautions to prevent harm to self and facilities in event of petroleum spillage or fire.

Shipping and Receiving Manager, Home Depot, Sioux City, Iowa, 2009-2010

Coordinated all incoming shipments as well as shipping various home improvement products to customers and other retail outlets. Managed seven employees and trained them on safety procedures and product placement throughout the store as well as oversaw training on various pieces of equipment, such as a forklift, reach-truck, and order picker.

Franchise Dealer – Snappy Jasons Tools – Sioux City, Iowa, 2001-2009

Owned and operated a Snap On Tools franchise servicing more than 450 customers with repairs, orders, sales and collections. Achieved $450K in paid sales annually over an eight year period, accumulating more than $3.6 million in paid sales. Merchandised and operated a 22' mobile tool store with $100K in inventory at all times. Supervised training classes for furthering the education of technicians within my territory. Worked extensively with repair shop owners to increase their revenue by utilizing the Snap On Tools brand. Coordinated the payment and collections for 450 customers thru truck accounts and Snap On credit programs.

United States Marine Corps – Combat Correspondent – MCRD San Diego, 1988-1992

As a Combat Correspondent I reported on all news happening at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego. Responsibilities included being a basic print journalist, photographer. Also included being a liaison between the civilian community and the Marine Corps. Produced a weekly newspaper as the editor, doing layout and design and correcting format, punctuation and content of stories through communications with journalists. Above all assigned military occupational specialties, I was a basic rifleman first, trained in all aspects of small arms firing and maintenance. Also was proficient in military tactics at the fire team, squad and platoon level.

Education/Training

Private Investigator Certified in the state of Iowa, Sioux City, Iowa, 2010
Security Guard Certified in the state of Iowa, Sioux City, Iowa, 2010
Supervisor Training, Home Depot, Sioux City, Iowa, 2009
Risk Assessment Training, Home Depot, Sioux City, Iowa, 2009
Snap On Tools Dealer Training, Sioux City, Iowa, 2001
NCO School, United States Marine Corps, San Diego, Calif., 1991
Basic Journalism Course, Defense Information School, Indianapolis, Ind., 1989
High School Diploma, North High School, Sioux City, Iowa, 1988

Awards

Marine Corps Good Conduct Medal with gold star, Meritorious Unit Commendation, Navy Unit Commendation with gold star, Marine Corps Expert Rifle Qualification, Marine Corps Pistol Sharpshooter Qualification, Snap On Tools Platinum Dealer Award, Snap On Tools Midwest Regional Ring Award, Snap On Tools Dealer of the Month (6 times), Snap On Tools Credit Sales Ring Award